March 2019

Happy
St. Patrick's Day

Mosaic Artwork Frames

Resident Monika Drake will hold a meeting on Friday, March 8, at 2:00pm in the Poolside Café to give more information regarding Mosaic Art as follows: What is the cost? How to get material? Locations and many other questions you might have. She would like have a class on picture frames in the future. They can be done in mosaic, or sea shells, your old buttons from Grammy's button box, broken custom jewelry and much more. They can be used as gifts for weddings, babies, or just because you made them!

Special Seminar: Why Do I Act the Way I Do?

Do you get mad quickly? Are you messy, organized, forgetful and/or anxious? Are you a cleaning machine, or is your husband always grumpy? Are you artistic, romantic, in a hurry, or really slow? Do you get along with people, or a hermit who wants to be alone? It may not be your fault. Your DNA may have you programmed to act that way. You can change, but you need to understand your own temperament to effectively do it. This could be the most important seminar that you could attend to understand yourself, your family, or your friends. Seminar includes identifying your own temperament through a personal test and consultation. Monday, March 25th & Tuesday, March 27th in the Library, both from 3:00 to 5:00pm. Snacks and supplies provided. $15.00 cost.

Garbage Chute Etiquette

You've heard it before, but it's not being followed. It appears many are sending loose shredded papers down the chute. Please cease and desist. This is clogging up the chute. Please help!

Mail Etiquette

Dennis our postman has asked that people not let their mail pile up. Pick up your mail.

You GO! Cro-Knit Club!

The Cro-Knit Club has really been busy. During the months of December and January they have donated 72 preemie hats to Memorial Hospital and 55 to St. Vincent's Hospital for the maternity wards. They donated 32 scarf and hat sets, 7 scarfs and 6 hats to St. Paul United Methodist Church for the homeless. Also, 1 boy baby blanket, 7 baby hats, 1 girl baby blanket and 7 hats to St. Joseph's Church's home (12 beds) for unwed mothers. They are now working on blankets for children with cancer at Wolfson's Children's Hospital. Want to join them? They meet in the Café every Tuesday from 2:00 to 3:00pm.

Getting Rid of a Hard Drive?

by Anna Nguyen

I've put off getting rid of my old (2000) Dell computer for a long time because I was afraid of the hard drive falling into the wrong hands. I recently discovered that you can take all old computers with monitors, keyboards, etc. to Staples for recycling. They will remove the hard drive and give it back to you if you want. The tech who removed my hard drive told me to pass a strong magnet over it several times and then destroy it by smashing it with a hammer. Of course, wear safety glasses if you decide to hammer away. There was no charge. They also take old cell phones and other kinds of electronic equipment.
